

Permission to Appeal results – JCPC June/July 2015

Case name	Justices	PTA	Reasons given
Sport Data Feed Ltd (Appellant) v Stevenhills Limited and another (Respondents) (Mauritius) Case No: JCPC 2015/0019	Lord Kerr Lord Clarke Lord Toulson	Refused 7 July 2015	Permission to appeal be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law, or a point of general public importance which ought to be considered by the Judicial Committee at this time. This was a procedural issue and the Court of Appeal has analysed the jurisprudence.
Mohammed (Appellant) v The State (Respondent) (Trinidad & Tobago) Case No: JCPC 2015/0024	Lord Kerr Lord Clarke Lord Toulson	Refused 7 July 2015	Permission to appeal be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law of general public importance which ought to be considered by the Judicial Committee at this time. The summing up was adequate and there is no reason to suspect a miscarriage of justice.
The Victorian Society (Appellant) v Dennard and another (Respondents) Case No: JCPC 2015/0049	Lord Neuberger Lady Hale Lord Mance	Refused 16 July 2015	Permission to appeal be refused because the applications do not raise an arguable point of law, or a point of general public importance which ought to be considered by the Judicial Committee at this time. There is no attack on the principles which are applicable; and the only issue is whether the application of the correct principles to the facts of this case produced the result arrived at by the Court.
