

Permission to Appeal results – March and April 2018

Case name	Justices	PTA	Reasons given
Jogie (Appellant) v Sealey (Respondent) (Trinidad and Tobago) JCPC 2017/0090	Lord Kerr Lord Carnwath Lord Briggs	Granted 13 March 2018
In the following cases, the advice which the Board proposes to give to Her Majesty is as indicated below
Byron (Respondent) v Eastern Caribbean Amalgamated Bank (Appellant) (Antigua & Barbuda) JCPC 2017/0089	Lady Hale Lord Hodge Lord Lloyd-Jones	Granted 24 April 2018
Bell (Appellant) v Attorney General of the Isle of Man (Respondent) (Isle of Man) JCPC 2017/0087	Lord Mance Lord Hughes Lady Black	Refused 24 April 2018	Permission to appeal should be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law of general public importance which ought to be considered by the Judicial Committee at this time.
Connor and another (Appellants) v First Caribbean International Bank (Bahamas) Ltd (Respondent) (Bahamas) JCPC 2018/0027	Lord Kerr Lord Carnwath Lord Briggs	Refused 24 April 2018	Permission to appeal should be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law of general public importance which ought to be considered by the Judicial Committee at this time.