

Permission to Appeal results – JCPC November 2014

Case name	Justices	PTA	Reasons given
Seewoosungkur (Appellant) v The State (Respondent) (Mauritius) JCPC 2014/0059	Lord Neuberger Lord Clarke Lord Carnwath	Refused 11 Nov 2014	Permission to appeal be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law of general public importance which ought to be considered by the Judicial Committee at this time.
In the following cases, the advice which the Board proposes to give to Her Majesty is as indicated below
UBS (Bahamas) Ltd (Appellant) v Standard Chartered Bank (Switzerland) SA (Bahamas) JCPC 2014/0062	Lord Neuberger Lord Clarke Lord Sumption	Refused 7 Nov 2014	Permission to appeal should be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law.
Vinton (Appellant) v First Caribbean International Bank (Barbados) Ltd (Respondent) ( St Christopher and Nevis) JCPC 2014/0056	Lord Neuberger Lord Clarke Lord Carnwath	Refused 7 Nov 2014	Permission to appeal should be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law.
Enevoldsen and others (Appellant) v Perpetual Media Capital Limited (Respondent) (Guernsey) JCPC 2014/0058	Lord Neuberger Lord Clarke Lord Sumption	Refused 11 Nov 2014	Permission to appeal should be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law of general public importance.